ICTS Europe acquired by Management and DBAG

Amsterdam, the Netherlands April 1st, 2008 - ICTS Europe Holdings B.V.

Fraport AG has sold its wholly-owned ICTS Europe Holdings B.V. subsidiary to Management and Deutsche Beteiligungs AG (DBAG), a leading Germany-based private equity company, experienced in the industrial services sector. Under the contract signed today, the purchase price of € 100 million has been transferred and the complete transfer of ICTS Europe Holdings B.V. to the new owner has taken place.

Deutsche Beteiligungs AG is a highly experienced private equity company occupying a leading position in the German market, focusing on international investments in enterprises well established in their markets across a broad range of sectors.

ICTS Europe Holdings B.V., which became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fraport AG in 2002, is now active at over 80 locations in 24 countries. With a staff numbering more than 10,000, the company's activity is centered on the provision of security services at airports throughout Europe and beyond. For the year 2007, ICTS Europe Holdings B.V. reported revenues of approximately € 320 million.

ICTS Europe Management welcomes DBAG as the new shareholder and appreciates the opportunity of becoming co-investors in ICTS Europe Holdings B.V. ICTS Europe Management, together with DBAG, looks forward to continuing to enhance its emphasis on its current strategies: providing high-quality services to its clients, business development, product development and ongoing expansion into new territories and markets.

Mr. Zamir Eldar, ICTS Europe CEO, comments that "We are highly enthusiastic about the new ownership structure, which will enable ICTS Europe to further develop its business potential and supply its clients with innovative products and solutions geared towards further cementing its position as industry leader."
